Service name: Provision of information and consulting services. Consulting and assistance in preparing documents. Assistance in legalization.

1. Subject of the Agreement:
This agreement stipulates that the "Implementer" commits to provide the necessary required consultations and service to help obtaining a visa and leaving the end client's home country, enabling the potential acquisition of a residence permit in an EU or CIS country. The "Agent" is obligated to accept and remunerate the "Implementer" for services rendered, as specified in an additional verbal or written agreement.

2. Obligations of the Partners:
2.1. The Agent is obliged to:

2.1.1. Furnish the end client with comprehensive information regarding services, document processing procedures for international travel, and relevant legislation and residence regulations in the desired visa country.
2.1.2. Provide accurate end client information and requisite documents for visa processing.
2.1.3. Make an advance payment as agreed upon to the specified details of the "Implementer."
2.1.4. Submit necessary documents within 2-5 days after the advance payment.
2.1.5. Compile additional documents essential for visa application at the consulate.
2.1.6. Cover document delivery costs if original copies are required.

2.2. The Implementer is obligated to:

2.2.1. Provide all necessary consultations and help in preparing the necessary documents, required by the employer and migration authorities, for the end client's visa application, after receiving essential end client information, documents, and advance payment.
2.2.2. Request final payment for provided scanned copies within 48 hours after their provision.
2.2.3. Facilitate the complete document package within the agreed timeframe.

3. Rights of Partners:
3.1. Agent's Rights:
3.1.1. Receive timely and comprehensive information about current offers, services, procedures, costs, and other non-confidential, non-personal data for service proposals and implementation in their region.
3.1.2. Inquire about the list and content of documents provided by the "Implementer."
3.1.3. Request information on the end client's anticipated salary in the desired visa country.
3.1.4. Seek details about extending the end client's stay abroad, including procedures and conditions.
3.1.5. Verify information specified in end client documents for visa application.
3.1.6. Withhold payment for provided scanned copies containing errors in end client data until correction.
3.1.7. Demand clean scanned copies of documents upon full payment.

4. Additional Provisions:
4.1.1. In case of visa refusal, the "Agent" must provide the "Implementer" with a photo of the original visa refusal notice, indicating the reason. Additional end client information may be requested by the "Implementer."
4.1.2. The "Implementer" is not liable for compensating expenses incurred by the "Agent" or their end client during the visa application process, including visa fees, insurance, travel, accommodation, and related costs.
4.1.3. If the reason for the visa refusal was the fault of the employer or the documents provided by the "Implementer" (including bad/fake documents or employer issues), a full refund will be provided in the event of an unsuccessful appeal, a change of employer, or the decision of the "Agent".

5. Cost Services:
5.1. The total cost of agreement of cooperation will depend from future contract AGREEMENT FOR THE PROVISION OF MIGRATION CONSULTANCY SERVICES where will be written all conditions about partnership between AGENT and IMPLEMENTER..
5.2. Appendix 1 is integral to this agreement and must be signed by partners for each payment, whether advance or final.
5.3. Upon the final payment and provision of clean scanned documents, the "Implementer" must provide and the "Agent" must sign the Certificate of Completion.

6. Disputes and Conflicts:
6.1. Disagreements between partners are resolved through negotiation.

7. Non-disclosure and Third-party Transfer Policy:
7.1. The "Agent" must not directly engage with our European partners. Violation of this agreement incurs a financial penalty of €50,000.

8. Payment methods:

- Bank transfer to the Corporate bank account in Hong Kong;
- Online transfer via Stripe/Revolut;
- Cryptocurrency transfer;
- Cash at Head office in Warsaw, Poland.

9: Force Majeure and Implementation Delays
9.1 In the event that the IMPLEMENTER experiences delays in the execution of their obligations under this Agreement due to Force Majeure circumstances, both Parties acknowledge and agree that such delays may be excusable.
9.2 For the purposes of this Agreement, "Force Majeure" shall mean any unforeseeable and unavoidable events or circumstances beyond the reasonable control of the IMPLEMENTER, including but not limited to acts of God, war, terrorism, strikes, lockouts, fires, floods, governmental actions, or any other events deemed beyond the reasonable control of the IMPLEMENTER.
9.3 Should the IMPLEMENTER encounter Force Majeure circumstances resulting in delays, the IMPLEMENTER shall promptly notify the AGENT in writing, providing details of the Force Majeure event, its expected duration, and any measures being taken to mitigate its impact.

9.4The AGENT acknowledges that, under Force Majeure circumstances, the IMPLEMENTER may require additional time, and the implementation period specified in this Agreement may be extended for a period not exceeding three (3) months.
9.5 During the Force Majeure event and any resulting delays, both Parties shall work in good faith to minimize the impact on the implementation schedule and seek alternative solutions where feasible.
9.6 If the Force Majeure event persists beyond the three-month extension period, either Party may, at their discretion, terminate this Agreement without liability, and any payments made prior to the termination shall be refunded proportionately.
9.7 Notwithstanding the Force Majeure provisions, the Parties shall make reasonable efforts to resume performance of their respective obligations as soon as practicable following the resolution of the Force Majeure event.

10: Refund Procedure
10.1 In the event of a decision by the IMPLEMENTER to proceed with a refund, the refund process shall commence within one (1) month from the official notification provided by the IMPLEMENTER confirming the acceptance of such decision.
10.2 The refund shall be processed in accordance with the agreed-upon terms and conditions outlined in this agreement.
10.3 The parties mutually acknowledge and agree that the one-month timeframe for initiating the refund procedure shall be deemed reasonable and sufficient for the execution of the necessary steps involved in facilitating the refund.
10.4 Any delays in the refund process beyond the stipulated timeframe due to factors beyond the control of either party shall not be considered a breach of this agreement.
10.5 The refund shall be executed in the same form of payment as the original transaction, unless otherwise mutually agreed upon by both parties.
10.6 This clause shall remain in effect notwithstanding the termination or expiration of this agreement and shall survive any such termination or expiration.
